

DREAM 'S THEORY OF COMPREHENSIVE INNOVATION: DEFINITION, CLASSIFICATION AND ANALYSIS

Jin-zhong Gong***

Abstract: Dreams are the most mysterious part of the human spirit, many scholars have made unrelenting exploration, put forward a variety of theories. On the basis of summarizing the achievements of predecessors, the author puts forward a unique hypothesis about dreams. Dreams illusion are the individual all that one's saw and heard in sleep. It is the continuation and transformation of consciousness. Relative to the conscious granular metabolism, dream is a typical wave metabolism, frequency range and vibration amplitude are its fundamental characteristics. Dream text is expressed by reality awake language, the mental activity process of the dreamer during sleep, such as feeling, consciousness, manifestation, remembrance, reasoning, judgment, knowledge and individual motivations, interests, needs, beliefs, world views, ideas, concepts, emotions, attitudes, etc. Dreams are a summary of past experiences, and a prediction of the future prospect. Dream use spoken language to express the ineffable content, use visible light wave metabolism metaphor invisible light wave metabolism, so it is droller. The basic principle of dream language is deformation condensation, exaggeration and symbol to the awakening language. According to the stage difference of mental process of dream formation, the author classify dreams as bodily sensation type, memory manifestation type, learning arranging and predicts future type. They are related to the stage of sleep. Frequency ratio of these dreams, decreases in order. This paper provides a personalized to explain dreams dictionary. For the dreams of prophecy, we should understanding from the angle of pancosmism, system mutual shine upon and control theory and voluntarism and nominalism.

Keywords: Theories about dreams, mental process, dream dictionary, genetic classification, analytical demonstration

The complete process of human consciousness and its mechanism, is the riddle that human confusion, guess, explore for thousands of years, the typical state of unconscious activity, dreams is the mystery of the mystery. Dream is undoubtedly the most charming, the most strange psychological phenomenon. It is estimated that, everyone lives about one-third of his life is spent in sleep. Dream of this elusive sphinx mystery, for the history of writers , philosophers, psychologists, physiologists hard to explore.

Writers resort to exaggeration, symbolism, under guise, buesching and other artistic expression techniques, relate to beautiful description of the dream, leaving a colorful, bizarre works. Philosophers have long-term rational thinking about dreams. Psychologists regard the dream as an unconscious spiritual activity, when sleeping subconscious latent experience into consciousness is the dream. What is the difference between the dream and awake mental activity? What is caused the dream? Why is the scenes in the dream bizarre, incredible? Why we can see the ancients in the dream, and predicts the future? Why sometimes the dream can predict good or ill luck? Why can gain the creativeness inspiration in the dream?

A dream theory of comprehensive innovation

Author according to many years of oneself dream cases study, combined with previous achievements, put forward a new theoretical hypothesis: The dream is what one sees and hears, by the individual in the sleep, is the night scenery, the individual myth. It is awake continuation and conversion, someone image metaphor the dream and awake as the yin(cathode) and yang(positive) fish positive in Tai Chi map. Relative to the awake granular metabolism, dream is a typical wave metabolism, the frequency range and the vibration amplitude are the fundamental features. The dream text is a mental activity process when sleeping , by expresses the language in reality that the dreamer’s sensation, consciousness, appearance, remember, reasoning, judgment, ask for knowledge and so on, as well as individual motives, interests, needs, beliefs, world outlook, ideas, concept, emotion and attitudes. Dream is a summary of past experience, and the prophecies of the future projects. Dreams are use speak words to expres unspeakable, metaphor of invisible light wave metabolism by metaphors of visible light waves, so it seems bizarre. in fact, if you have mastered the logic rules of corresponding interpretation, it will be order and system. The basic principle of dream language is condensation, deformation, exaggeration and symbolism to awake language.

The dream’s cognitive mental activity mechanism is basically the same as that of awakening, is also stimulating S-mediated variable O-reaction R, just in the self – centre universe frame of reference.

Table 1 Comparison between dream and wakening

Comparison project	Sleep dream	Awakening perception state	extrasensory perception (ESP)	sensory perception consciousness state	unconsciousness, subconsciousness	consciousness
electromagnetic metabolism	invisible light wave	visible light particle
time mode	non-linear non-directional	linear orientation
spatial model	non Euclidean geometry	euclidean geometry
frame of reference	ego-Universe	self-world
literary description	His consciousness and thought was blinded	He realized the objective world around him

Dreams generate work from conceal meaning to manifest meaning generally have: whole compression condensed into local, with the obvious to metaphor obscure, with a simple symbolic complex, replace abstract thinking with visual image. The interpretation work of the dream is the manifest dream content to restore the latent dream-thought, that is, through the riddles to guess the mystery.

According to the author's experience, in the dream, shape-like objects can often replace to each other, the substitutes are more elegant than the substituted, such as poisonous snakes replace to the penis. the characters of dream, sometimes with its name replace to the pronunciation of similar words. In the family life scene, wife and mother are often confused, seems to support Oedipus complex. For this summed up the personalized solution dream dictionary for reference only, but may not be suitable for all the situation, as pointed out by Adler, we can not use the common formulas to explain the symbol and metaphor of all dreams. The same symbol, in different people's dreams may indicate different meaning. Family experience may have a personal remembrance of the mark.

Classification of psychological causes and its analysis for dreams

The scientific classification of dreams has great significance, because different types of dreams, its analysis and interpretation methods are also different.

Ancient human beings on the initial division of the dreams, according to its scope of time and space is divided into great dreams and small dreams, according to the gains and losses, divided into good and ill luck, happiness and disaster.

From the subconscious differentiate theory, Jung believes that dreams have individual meanings (personal mythology) and collective meaning (collective mythology). According to the state of consciousness when dreaming, someone raised intoxicated dreams and sober dreams.

The category of dreams is differ in thousands of ways, because of dreamer the age, sex, cultural background and thinking state, its rigorous scientific classification is difficult. According to the stage differences of the psychological process of the dreams formation, the author roughly classified the dream stimulate perception, remember impression, learning and arrange and foresee future. The frequency of these dreams appear , as a spindle that less at both ends and middle more. A complete dream is like a wonderful drama, experience the scene bedding, contradictory presentation, the climax of the struggle, often stop interrupted awakened.

Stimulate-perceived dream

During sleep, the excitement of the external environment , some parts of the body strong physiological needs, express it by the awake image language . Such as stomach hunger dream cooking dinner, when the cold dream to heating, when pull the stomach you has diarrhea dream to go to the toilet, joint stiff dreams so difficult to walk.

A thief intrude into your room

The Example: In a trance July 24, 1984

A empty large room for single living alone. Deep at night some time, crust trembling, bedside bumps, train thundered. I opened my eyes , the walls around me rushed to me, opposite the window appeared a thief hideous terrible giant face. I hurried to pull the switch rope and shouted loudly. The lights are not lit, roar is drowned in the noise. At this time awakened from this dream with a real sense of consciousness. My heart bounce, shoulder numbness, cold thighs, body frightened appearance.

Interpretation: The college students who only one year after graduation, accommodats in a desolate, lonely dormitory. In the stillness of the night, the noise of the trains running nearby, being woven into a dream by the dreamer. Another time, in my dream, the sound of the broom sweeping was transformed, the voices of the twitching of the college sweetheart, in the morning

The dreams of remember and impression

Seen and heard or thought during the day, will be visualization consolidation or remodeling portray recollection, that is day has seen night thinking. Freud thinks the cause of this dream, subconscious willingness to associate with the continuation of daytime thought activity, resulting in a reversal effect, inspired the re-expression and symbolic fulfillment of the repressed desire. Can continue to dream of the daytime thinking activities are: No results were made during the day, due to lack of intelligence can not handle , was excluded and suppressed, was unconsidered, activated the subconscious activity. Adler believes that the purpose of the dream must be applied to the dreamer's personality traits.

The emperor selects a prince

Example: The eunuchs dedicates a princes to the emperor On April 16, 1986

I dream this picture: A very old, purple black, wrinkled, long bearded man, the supreme highest majesty emperor, sitting in the palace throne. Three or two of the same old eunuchs to force a young girl to take off her clothes (now bare shoulders and hips) pull forward emperor. The shamelessly dissipated emperor obscene accepts the girl. The girl facial pale chin up and chest out and looks up at the front of the head. Some eunuchs greedy mouth staring at the girl's buttocks, some stupid looking eunuchs staring at the emperor.

Interpretation: In the works of literature and film, frames the sensory memory of the shameless dissipated private life of the emperor, in my dream, it was conceived as a vivid oil painting. In reality, Genghis khan is one of those hooligans leaders. He is said to have several dozens of registered concubines. After the Zhungeer tribe was defeated, the leader gave his daughter to the occupier as a plaything for seek his own survival. The daughter is about the same age as Jenghiz khan's son.

The dream of learning and arrange

the recent personal experience and the past life experience for creative spontaneous reorganization, compiled a lively, vibrant, full of sound and colour, billows magnificent storyline, to the dreamer with great life enlightenment.

Creative inspiration often appears in the dreams of body and mind relaxation. Because the cerebral cortex center may form some temporary contacts that awake unexpectedly formed, get rid of the ties of logical thinking and social prejudice, so the dream can obtain the achievements of thinking and for inventions.

A man cutting up a snake

The example: I am cutting up a snake and the cooking its meat    October 12, 1987

A darkness yellow wriggling    live snake in the washbasin. I heard that about the snake meat was delicacy tasty, somewhere in between the chicken and the rabbit and wanted to taste it. I cut it open with a knife, it distorts more violent, separating two half apart still not stopped, and the beating heart is clearly visible. I quickly doused a glass of boiling water on it. It struggled more enliven, and its body and water became one. After a while, it calmed down and the meat cooked ripe.

At that time, workmate Zhao came over and put the ripe meat into a transparent intestine-shape bag. We have tasted around the table. When I could eat it's head, I was afraid that it would bite me, fired its venom .

Interpretation: On the anniversary of the wedding, we are entering the beautiful scene, the Wushan cloud and rain , the high gorge flat lake, the war of water and the fire. In this case, the creepy snake is undoubtedly a metaphor for male reproductive organs. The whole dream combines a strong sex scene with a heavy car accident to create a new story. This spring, during the geological survey in Xinglong county, I lived with my colleague Zhao in the hometown. Their son chased his mother and kept shouting to feed milk. On July 14, a car accident happened in Jixian county, Tianjin. I made artificial respiration for zhao, so eased his suffocating symptoms.

The dream of foresee the future

Now the dream is a tortuous symbol of the future some individuals or major groups of events, after pass by a period you find, between the previous dream and the later reality, with a surprising coupling correspondence. The number of such dreams is very rare, before the implementation come true, it is difficult to determine, it is recognized by many materialists as accidental coincidence or even superstition. Aristotle against the dream can predict the future, he questioned, everyone has done so much dreams, why most of the dreams are not efficacious? Cicero said: what people will get the dream of efficacious? Is it the daydreaming in entire day?

The prediction dreams is no lacked living examples in history, so many people hold on the attitude that would rather believe it has, can not believe its no.

In all warning dream, the most common type is to predict the future prospect and fate of the dreamer and their relatives and friends life and death and other matters, such examples is constantly repeated in modern times. US President Lincoln was murdered a few days ago, he to tell his wife his dream: He saw the front of the White House ,the soldier guarding the coffin and was told that "the president was assassinated." June 1914, one day before the Sarajevo Ferdinand assassination incident, Bishop Joseph Rani, his teacher, dreamed that the grandee was assassinated.

I have also had a few fulfilled dreams, the main concern is the personal fate, birth, senility, illness and death of the relatives and friends, but it was hard to judge, before the fulfillment of the prophecy that those dreams had a prophetic effect, nature's mystery is impossible to leak.

It is also often mysterious that the relatives meet dreams of the living and the dead. According to my experience, in most cases, such dreams are the dreamer to use the dead to express their psychic process. A few cases, through this way, the dead convey to the living, they want their loved ones to do what they want to do. This is what the so-called soul deceased, entrusted dream or dreamers communicate with the dead or after death communication in dream(Bill and Judy Guggenheim, 1988). To understand such dreams, It involves immortality of the soul in the death-Soul survival after death. This old and controversial idea.

Fig. 2 Schematic diagram of the cause of the prophecy dreams

Henry de Matliner in the "uninvited guest" assumed that what ever events, whether in the past, present or future, regardless of any location in space, any event can be found in a place to find its traces, because they are perpetual. For this existence, we can be perceived in a certain state, as long as we capture the trajectory of events that have not yet occurred in time and space, it is possible to predict the future.

Junger uses "synchronic synchronicity" theory to explain this phenomenon. Synchronicity is a meaningful coincidence of two or more events, which contain something that is not accidental. It is thought to be a modern word that is derived from the dilapidated concepts of operators should, resonating and harmony. In developing the concept of synchronicity, Jung relates it to some of the findings of modern theoretical physics: I think of it as a kind of ultimate non-causality, the creative act from the proton. He also noted that the universe is a harmonious and unified process, a dynamic network of interconnected elements. This is consistent with what he sees as the notion of a "deep harmony between all forms of existence".

The "sleeping prophet" Edgar Cayce's prophecy is all-encompassing, high accuracy, for individuals, groups, countries and the world situation and the human future development trend are all involved. He can "see" the path and experience details of a person's life, and he can reveal the future career of a baby in its infancy. He claims that these abilities are the natural instincts of anyone, the abilities of people are much larger than the modern men imagination. We just have to remove our obsession with personal interests or detachment from self-interest, be able to acquire this ability. In psychic terms, Casey has a habit and habits of awareness hatching prophesydreams.

For the prophecy dream , we should be able to understand from the pancosmism, system mutual shine upon and control,voluntarism and nominalism.

Pancosmism thinks, the universe is the largest mother system of information metabolism, it is not limited to the universe that everyone knows, nor does it equal the universe observed by modern astronomy. It combines the time of the present and the future, the infinite large infinitesimal of space, the infinite complexity and simple of structure, the meaning of "the most". Pancosmism is a prerequisite for learning before experience. The theory of mankind beginning "God" and "Heavens " are the personification of the pancosmism.

The theory of system mutual shine upon and control thinks, they are mutual shine upon and control of each other, between each subsystem and the mother systems and between each subsystem in the universe. So-called Bioholographic, cosmic holographic, it's a inaccurate expression of this principle.

Voluntarism thinks, consciousness is the last course of intelligent metabolic of knowledge emotion consciousness. It is both the result of intelligent metabolism (consciousness) and the beginning of the new level of intelligent metabolism (will). Consciousness is the organ of conceptual transformation.

Nominalism thinks, as long as the information system that is able to name and form the concepts, has its engineering position and function in the universe. All names and features are stored in the cosmic information storage system, and the name is the first sign. This is consistent with the computer principle. Knowing the name, we can predict its future, this is a in two general terms question, a concept is the supersense reality of the name, another concept is the future of normal sensation. There are time and place translation machines involved and similar group conversion in the prediction.

In the all-encompassing Pancosmism nonlinear space-time, because of this particular focus on some peoples and things, the dreamer has a harmonic vibration between the present perception and the event of the future, the function process and the result, to form the equivalent information points, become a dream of predictive power. The full condition of the prophecy dream should be a prepared mind, the peoples who are concerned about the development of the situation.

In short, dream is a kind of wave information metabolism, it is the important learning before experience, it has the harmonious vibration nature. The dream scene is a hydrazine (range) and barrier (gradient) constructed by the dreamer knowledge, emotion, and consciousness. Dreams are a different reality to waking. Dream and wake have multiple transformation relationships with decomposition and recombination, similar opposite and deformation. The space-time in the dream is multi-dimensional. Dreams are the individual myths, myth and legend are the collective dreams of a nation. Any major information metabolism in the universe can be seen in the dreams of the concerned peoples. Thus, life is like a dream has real scientific value.
